

STUDENT SAFETY

We adhere to a traffic light system and zones of regulation to keep our students and staff safe whilst at the studio. If there is a risk that a student's behaviour may harm another student, they will be asked to leave and try again next week.

RISK	SIGNALS	PROTOCOL
	Calm nature, ready to listen and learn.	All good to go!
	Verbalising negative comments, disengaging in activities, expressing a desire to leave, throwing items, yelling	Recommend taking time to cool down, self regulate and rejoin the program. Explain to the student and support work or family member if less than positive or engaging behaviour increases, they may be asked to leave.
	Extreme yelling, showing signs of physically or emotionally hurting themselves or others, damaging property, disrespecting students or staff.	Student will be asked to leave and try again next week.